

Potter Class Learning

We played lots of games. We worked out what 1 more marble would be.

We made a den for the bears. We thought carefully about the design of the den and persevered until we made a den big enough for everyone.

We told stories using lots of different props and objects.

Please provide extra socks on forest school days.

We have used the light boards to practise writing our tricky words.