

Shakespeare Class News

9th December 2022

Hi from Shakespeare class,
Week seven of the second half of our Autumn term and the festive mood continues to grow. In class this week as we approach the end of this Autumn term it has been lovely to see so many of you join us in some activities. From being involved in the Sunday Church service at St. Marys to the 'Memory walk' on Thursday. Then there was the Christingle service and lastly the celebration assembly on Friday, followed by open classrooms. Thank you for all of your support.

Please have a look at the 'Upcoming Dates' on the news sheet, as there is still lots going on next week.

Homework

This week there is no tasks being set. Please though can I have in any books that remain at home.

English / Literacy (Pink book)

Not coming home this week.

Atom Learning

No additional activities set this week.

Spellings

None set.

(Year 5 & 6 focused words)	Challenge Spelling Words
Spelling rule:

Maths

Mental Arithmetic books not coming home. Please can I have in those that are outstanding.

Reading

Years 5 and 6 pupils should be reading for at least 30 minutes x 5 a week. This could be reading to an adult aloud, independently or sharing a book together. It is important that the comprehension and understanding of the text is checked regularly.

Race to Read

Children are being encourage to complete 50 reading sessions and these should be recorded on the sheet within their 'green' Reading record book.

Upcoming Dates from the calendar

12th December - Forest School for Year 5

14th December – Christmas Lunch.

15th December – Whole School Trip to the Pantomime in Canterbury.

16th December – Start of the Christmas break.

Finally, please remember that there is lots more information about things going on in Shakespeare class which can be found on the school website within the Shakespeare class pages

I hope you have a lovely weekend and are keeping warm. As always, many thanks for your support

